Greetings from your President and CEO this New Year!

Dear Members,

I wanted to personally reach out to our members to thank you for your loyalty to the Firefighters Credit Union. We are grateful for members like you, who make our work truly rewarding.

You can say this much about 2020: None of us will ever forget it.

The year was memorable not only for the challenges the pandemic created in our personal and professional lives, but also for our members.

I look forward to this New Year with confidence that your credit union will continue to be a progressive financial institution. We are committed to our strengths of service and products to help you continue to grow with us.

I thank you for your membership and look forward to another year with you.

On, behalf of myself, management, staff and our Board of Directors, we extend to you a happy, healthy and prosperous year 2021.

Sincerely,

Mel Self
President/CEO
