Dear Mr. Morgan:

I am writing to congratulate you and your company, Lafayette Venetian Blind, Inc., for your commitment to environmental stewardship and energy efficiency. The honor of receiving the Environmental Stewardship Award for Energy Management Systems is one worth noting.

Energy demand is increasing, and with these increases we will need more supply. Indiana has developed a strategic energy plan, and part of that plan involves energy efficiency. Recognized by many as the "fifth fuel," energy efficiency is the most cost effective way to balance our energy supplies while not having to tap into future supplies before it is necessary.

Your commitment to energy efficiency and the environment proves that you have a successful company with strong leadership and concern for the future of Indiana and the nation as a whole. I hope you will spread the word of your successes to other Hoosier companies and encourage their participation in energy efficient practices.

Keep up the good work in West Lafayette.

Sincerely,

Sue Ellspermann
Lt. Governor
