Robin's Corner:

Next week is American Education Week. This is a week that celebrates public education. We are so blessed to live in a country where a free education is available to all citizens. Even more so, we are blessed to have students in a district that provides the best of the best opportunities for ALL students. I salute our district administrators, school board and staff for serving public education. I want to also recognize our partners in this endeavor- our families and communities. Thank you for all you do to support us in educating our students. There will be a career fest at the high school Tuesday night which highlights the great things our high school and career center offer students. I hope you can all come out to see these incredible offerings. We will celebrate here at EA with Donuts for Dads Thursday and Friday, Spell Bowl competition at Liberty Park Thursday and a spirit week. Monday is Rock-It Rally wearing school spirit or purple, Tiny Teacher Tuesday for students to dress like any school staff that inspires them, Work It Out Wednesday to wear comfortable clothing, Throw-back Thursday to wear college gear that represents your favorite college or university and finally Flocabulary Friday to dress in a way that represents a vocabulary word and we will end with a parade at the end of the day. No masks please. Our classes will also be competing in a door decorating contest all week and teachers with winning doors will earn prizes! LET'S CELEBRATE AMERICAN EDUCATION. Before signing off I would like to thank all of you who helped our Cash for Core Jar Wars which raised over $300 for CORE incentives and prizes.

Officers D. Harris, M. Harris and Rohrer came to Eastridge to read with our first graders. They talked about safety! The question and answer period was a huge hit. We LOVE our Warren Police and they love us!
