Giddy Up & Grow Update: May 2020 Updates

Construction is officially underway! Demo has begun on the Party Room, which will be expanded and renovated to our new clinic space.

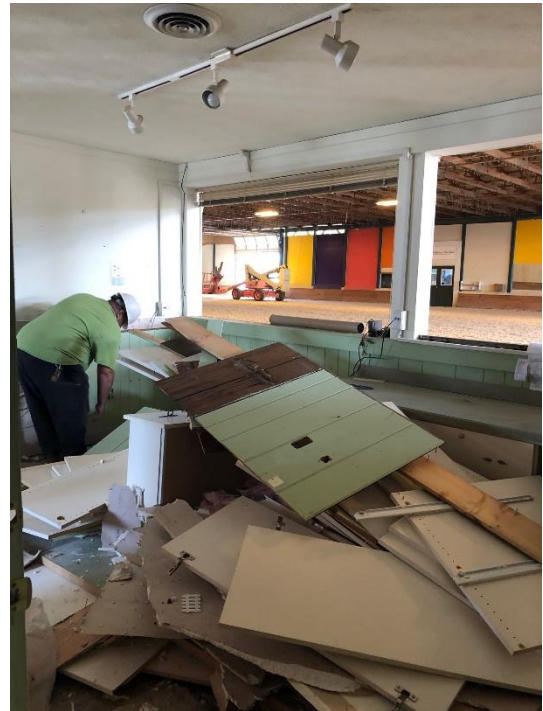

The new clinic space will come out ten feet to the south, and the framework is starting to take shape for the new structure.

There is a LOT to clean out of the Party Room!!!

The new office space will come out thirty feet to the east side of the building, and will house our admin team.
