WALKER CAREER CENTER FASHION & TEXTILES...YOU BETTER WORK!

The Walker Career Center Fashion and Textiles II Class has been hard at work this spring semester. Students have been encouraged to design projects using pre-own materials... the results are amazing! Kuddos to Instructor LeeAnn DeMoss and her students!

An easy way to recycle jeans for a summer look is cutting them off and painting an old shirt to give it new life.

A Intro to Fashion 2 student creates a plaid cuff on the bottom of her jeans that she distressed.

Combination a jean vest and sweatshirt for her recycle, design project.

Walker Career Center Celebrates Careerfest 2017

Walker Career Center would like to thank the over 161 areas represented at the Careerfest and Showcase on February 23, 2017. Students and families had an opportunity to explore career and course offerings and also speak with current students and instructors.

Walker Career Center Takes a Bite Out of Hershey

Two Walker Career Center engineering teams competed at the national level in an industrial engineering design contest, sponsored by Phoenix Contact. Our veteran team took two excellence awards, Excellence in Communication and Engineering and 2nd place overall! The Walker Career Center is proud of our Engineering teams and also Instructor, Mr. James Hanson...great job!
