Sunny Heights Families,

This week we have been completing NWEA assessments with students. We are very excited to see the growth that many students have made over the school year. Our staff is continuing to work very hard the last weeks of school so we end the year on a positive note! Please be aware that instruction will continue through the end of May. Students should not be picked up prior to 3:30 p.m. unless they have appointments or important situations arise.

Thank you for all that you do!

Your proud principal,

Barton Lewis

Our 3rd Grade students, teachers and chaperones were able to enjoy the Discovery Concerts with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra this past week which was provided for by a grant through Target that Mrs. Flannery was able to obtain. After the program, they were to eat lunch outside and visited the Circle Monument. Our kiddos looked very nice in their "Sunday" best!!
