Parents

"Don't try to be perfect.

Life isn't; no one is. Use mistakes and mishaps as opportunities to grow tolerance and to teach. There is such a thing as happy accidents. And love, love, love and listen, listen, listen."

—Teri Hatcher

Week 2 of our 2017-18 school year is in the books! We have had a phenomenal week with our Brookview Bulldogs.

Staff and students are working on developing a growth mindset. We realize there are things we do not know and cannot do - YET, but we welcome the opportunity to learn and try. We are not striving for perfection, but for progress. As the quote says – Our mistakes are opportunities and this year we will embrace those opportunities and celebrate risk taking and thinking outside the box. We will celebrate failure as we know it will be a step toward success. We will revel in alternative strategies to solving problems.

We are so very excited to have this year of opportunity with you and your students. I hope that you can join us this year for our many activities and events, beginning with Brookview's McTeacher's Night at the McDonald's in Cherry Tree Plaza on Wednesday, August 16th from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Also, next Friday, August 18th, will be our first Friday Night Live of the new school year.

Thank you for your support and the opportunity to educate your children here at Brookview, where each child, each day is a success.
